Nestled in the lowest recess among gently sloping hills is Paw Paw Lake, a natural lake in Geauga County, Ohio. The residents here are devoted to their community and cherish living in the paradise that is Paw Paw Lake. Our pristine lake is home to abundant wildlife and lovely fish. The trees surrounding the lake are ancient and regal. There is a peace that permeates the lake that brings refreshment to the eyes and soul. But those who live on Paw Paw Lake know that there are others residents, mostly unseen, who occasionally break through into the realm of the living. These are the Ghosts of Paw Paw Lake. Meet our Unseen Residents. Paw Paw Lake is a natural and spring-fed, and has been here since time unknown. Native Americans have refreshed with her waters. Settlers have eaten her fish and sipped her essence from the shores. People have been building homes here since the 1940 s. But sometimes, it is whispered, there are other inhabitants here who become known in chilling ways. Among the fog of the morning and within the mists after dark, there may be movements and eddies not quite perceivable and slightly disturbing. For generations the residents of Paw Paw Lake have seen and sensed the spirits who share this area with them. Some are terrible while others seem comfortable manifesting among those who live around the lake. A few don t seem to know that they are dead. These are their ghostly stories, whispered among the children as they play around the lake on long summer evenings. These are their supernatural revelations as they pursue...
