

I Love I Hate I Miss My Sister

By Amélie Sarn, Y. Maudet

Random House USA Inc, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. For readers of The Tyrant's Daughter, Out of Nowhere, and I Am Malala, this poignant story about two Muslim sisters is about love, loss, religion, forgiveness, women's rights, and freedom. Two sisters. Two lives. One future. Sohane loves no one more than her beautiful, carefree younger sister, Djelila. And she hates no one as much. They used to share everything. But now, Djelila is spending more time with her friends, partying, and hanging out with boys, while Sohane is becoming more religious. When Sohane starts wearing a head scarf, her school threatens to expel her. Meanwhile, Djelila is harassed by neighborhood bullies for not being Muslim enough. Sohane can't help thinking that Djelila deserves what she gets. But she never could have imagined just how far things would go. . . . An Amelia Bloomer Project List Selection A CBC Notable Social Studies Trade Book of the Year A Bank Street Best Book of the Year with Outstanding Merit Sarn's poignant novel surely raises issues of religious freedom, but it is foremost a coming-of-age story about personal choice...

This pdf will not be simple to start on reading through but extremely enjoyable to see. I have read and I also am sure that I will planning to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. You won't really feel monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you request me).
